

Dear Sirs,

I beleieve that morse code operation should be made completely optional as a mode of amateur radio operations (similar to say PSK31). Therefoe I believe that having morse code as a test requirement for obtaining an amateur license should be removed in accordance with the latest WRC results.

Thank you,
John Unrath
K6JHU